

Ozark Christian Academy

Dress Code for Girls & Young Ladies

Our Mission is to provide a distinctively Christian education that leads students to genuine learning and spiritual formation that will impact the world for Christ. Our dress code reaffirms and validates our Mission to:

- Honor and glorify God as a Christian community (1 Peter 2:9; 1 Corinthians 6:19-20)
- Respect the distinction of the sexes in a unisex culture (Romans 12:2)
- Exhibit modesty, cleanliness, and neatness with a conservative appearance (Titus 2:12)
- Promote a learning environment void of unnecessary distraction or temptation (Romans 13:14)

Therefore, all students must adhere to the following dress code guidelines while they are on campus and/or all official school activities on/off campus.

Girls and Young Ladies

Standard School Day Dress Code (Monday-Friday):

- Hair: Unquestionably long, to be styled attractively, but not extravagantly, pulled away from the face; must remain natural hair color – no dyeing of the hair
- Face/Body: Clean, free of all cosmetics, including medicated colored cosmetics; no body piercings or jewelry permitted (except one watch and one class ring)
- Shirts: Standard long-sleeved polo shirt (buttoned except for top button); solid colors only - may be white, navy or sky blue, red or burgundy, forest or hunter green, gray, or black; Shirts are to be tucked in during class.
- Skirts: Plain jumpers or skirts (A-line or full) may be worn for all grades (non-stretchy material); solid colors such as khaki (tan), navy, gray, or black may be worn; no splits; Length must be two inches below the bottom of the knee, preferably mid-calf
- Shoes/Socks: Casual, solid, conservative-color shoes (no boots except for casual days) are to be worn. Socks may be worn or hosiery with no sheer designs; Leggings, if worn, are not to be visible.
- Jackets/Sweaters: Matching solid color cardigan or school approved logo wear may be worn. Other jackets, scarves, hats, etc. are not to be worn in class.

Physical Education Class:

- Shirts: School approved logo wear, or three quarter length/long sleeve shirt with no questionable/inappropriate references (all clothing is subject to the Administration)
- Skirts: A-line or full denim skirt with no "decorative" or excessive rips, tears, or holes; no splits; Length must be two inches below the bottom of the knee, preferably mid-calf.
- Shoes/Socks: Athletics shoes and appropriate socks

Casual Days (As Announced):

- Shirts: Same as physical education class or business casual attire
- Skirts: A-line or full skirt with no "decorative" or excessive rips, tears, or holes; no splits; Length must be two inches below the bottom of the knee, preferably mid-calf
- Shoes/Socks: Any appropriate shoes or boots (no sandals, open toe or excessive heel) that the student can walk in well and does not draw unnecessary attention
